Duration: The Guild reserves the right to micro-film the manuscript and to destroy the manuscript at any time thereafter. You hereby authorize the Guild to destroy the manuscript or the micro-film without notice to you on the expiration of ten years from the date hereof. You may however renew the registration for an additional ten years if before the expiration of the first ten year period you pay the then applicable renewal fee and get a written receipt therefor. Fee should accompany request for renewal.

Withdrawal: At least 24 hours notice of intended withdrawal must be given to the Guild. If the manuscript is on micro-film, a per page charge at then current rates will be made at time of withdrawal.

Authority to Request Withdrawal: The manuscript will be given up only on your signature. Be sure the name under which you register is your legal name. The Guild is not bound to surrender a manuscript registered under a pseudonym without proof of identity.

If the registration is in the names of more than one person, the written consent of all is required to authorize withdrawal. In case a registrant is deceased, proof of death and the consent of his representative or heirs must be presented.

Safekeeping: Registration is a service. Its purpose is to assist writers in establishing the completion date and the identity of literary property. The Guild will exercise reasonable care to protect the manuscript and the record of registration, but it undertakes no responsibility for loss or destruction of the manuscript or of the registration records arising from causes beyond its control. IN THE EVENT OF LIABILITY BY THE GUILD FOR FAILURE TO EXERCISE REASONABLE CARE, IT IS AGREED THAT THE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF THE MANUSCRIPT SHALL BE $25.00.
